Affiant, Linh Tran Stephens (also known as Linh Stephens, "Plaintiff" herein), one of the People (as seen in Oklahoma Constitution Article 2 Section 1) republican in form, Sui Juris—I am NOT an en legis, nor the trust, nor the corporation, nor sole proprietor of LINH TRAN STEPHENS, but I am a living breathing woman with a living soul and a Holy Spirit of Christ/Yahusha)--do serve all defendants this affidavit, in this court of record, to make the following claims: Combined Objection to Two Defendants' Motions to Strike filed by Defendants Ciera Freeman and Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Defendants"). In support of this Objection, Sui Juris states:
i, Linh Tran Stephens, born in 1984, being of sound mind and legal age, do hereby affirm the following statements to be true to the best of my knowledge and belief:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff is proceeding sui juris in this matter, presenting herself as a living woman without any legal counsel because she is poor and cannot afford any lawyer since June 01, 2022 and ongoing.
2. Defendants have filed separate Motions to Strike Plaintiff's her sur-reply to their replies (Doc. Nos. 44 and 45), falsely alleging procedural deficiencies, unauthorized filings, and "threats".
3. Plaintiff contends that the Defendants' motions lack merit and that striking her sur-reply would unjustly hinder her ability to present her case, among many other strong arguments below:

II. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

4. Plaintiff filed her Complaint (Doc. No. 2) against Defendants on May 8, 2024.
5. Defendants filed their respective Motions to Dismiss on July 1, 2024,
6. Plaintiff filed her combined response to Defendants' Motions to Dismiss on September 06, 2024.
7. Defendants thereafter submitted Reply Briefs on September 20, 2024, and September 18, 2024 without asking any permission for leave from the court to file such things despite knowing procedural rules yet violating the rules themselves.
8. Plaintiff who does not know the procedural rules as she is not a lawyer, and due to false allegations in Defendant's Reply briefs, immediately rebutted them by filing her sur-reply regarding these false allegations (Doc. No. 44) on September 24, 2024, this is in opposition to Defendants' Reply to her filed Response to their Motion to Dismiss.
9. Defendants filed Motion to Strike Document(s) on October 10, 2024 and last one received by Plaintiff in the mail on November 11, 2024, seeking to strike Plaintiff's sur-replies, arguing non-compliance with Local Civil Rules (LCvR) regarding "replies".

OF NOTE: my response to their reply is not a reply but a "sur-reply" and the rule Defendants quoted was for "replies" which they themselves violated and then falsely accused me of.

III. LEGAL STANDARDS

10. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (FRCP): Under FRCP 6(b), courts have inherent authority to manage cases efficiently, but must also ensure fairness, especially towards sui juris litigants.

11. Supreme Court Precedents: The Supreme Court has consistently held that sui juris are entitled to leniency in procedural matters. In Lujan v. National Wildlife Federation, 504 U.S. 555 (1992), the Court emphasized the need for courts to provide clear guidance to self-represented parties.
12. Leniency Towards Sui Juris Litigants: Courts are encouraged to interpret procedural rules liberally to ensure that sui juris litigants are not unduly penalized for technical errors (See In re Nye, 455 U.S. 153 (1982)).

IV. ARGUMENT

13. Plaintiff's Right to Present Her Case and Truthful Pauperis Financial Status:

- a. As a sui juris litigant, limited legal resources and procedural knowledge hindered my ability to file a motion for leave promptly. Furthermore, my sur-reply addresses substantive issues raised by the defendants' perjurious and deceptive reply to my response to their Motion to Dismiss, necessitating an immediate response of truth to expose lies (new false allegations opened the door).
- b. Striking Plaintiff's sur-replies would impede her ability to fully argue her position, thereby infringing upon her due process rights. On January 23, 2023, Appellee's Indigent status was affirmed by this Oklahoma Supreme Court by their ruling that "Appellee's Objection to Appellant's Pauper's Affidavit is denied" see [Exhibit 01] for Oklahoma Supreme Court cases DF-120849, for CI-120847, and again for DF-120848 after the Justices read "12-29-2022 APLNT'S RESPONSE TO APLEE'S OBJECTION TO PAUPERIS AFFIDAVIT [with its extensive attached financial proofs including IRS income statements for 2 years attached and filed in trial court and given to opposing counsel]". See Exhibit 02.
- c. The recent revocation of my In Forma Pauperis (IFP) status "for all future cases" by the Oklahoma State Supreme Court was not a mere procedural maneuver; it represents a deliberate tactic aimed at stripping me of any remedies available in state courts. This action appears to be retaliatory in nature, occurring shortly after the Court received a letter from the United States Supreme Court (SCOTUS) regarding my filing which was immediately ignored by Oklahoma Supreme Court (see Exhibit 03)

“RE: Stephens v. Stephens, OK C.t of Civil Ap. No. 120,849. The above-entitled petition for writ of certiorari was originally postmarked March 25, 2024 and received again on June 27, 2024. The papers are returned for the following reason(s): Your case must first be reviewed by a United States court of appeals or by the highest state court in which a decision could be had. 28 USC 1254 and 1257, Sincerely, Scott S. Harris, Clerk, by /s/ Emily Walker of SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES OFFICE OF THE CLERK WASHINGTON, DC 20543-0001 dated 07-11-2024”,

Oklahoma Supreme Court then backdated their mandate to same date as July 11th, 2024, despite it was never issued online until much later, which stated

“On the 11th day of July, 2024, the Honorable Chief Justice John Kane of the Oklahoma Supreme Court ordered het Clerk of the Supreme Court to issue mandate, pursuant to the rules of the Oklahoma Supreme Court, in the above- styled appeal from the Tulsa County District Court. On appeal, the following judgment was entered on April 23rd, 2024 [?!?!?took them three months to issue a mandate for an opinion?!?!]: AFFIRMED”, followed by Oklahoma Supreme Court order of July 29th, 2024, which stated, “This Court will not consider any filings in a case after issuance of mandate. Accordingly, Petitioner’s filings on July 23, 2024, and any future filings in this case, will not be considered.”) and after my Mandamus against lower Tulsa County District Court to recuse all local special judges including presiding judge from adjudicating over my property (my daughter and retirement accounts are my property which i solemnly swear i have never signed over to the State to hamper by access unless the State obtained their alleged ownership by deliberate frauds and have been hiding these altered and fraudulent documents from me), liberty (my daughter is my key to my liberty and also my freedom to associate with my blood-children), and livelihood (my daughter is my livelihood). The Oklahoma Supreme Court was fully aware that I lack the financial means to cover filing fees and, as a result, I am unable to pursue further appeals in light of the numerous rights violations perpetuated by lower courts. This revocation was executed without any rebuttal evidence or any claim of deception concerning my financial status, ignoring concrete evidence that I was poor. Opposing party has relied solely on hearsay as he wasn’t there at the MA-121200 and MA-122445 and misquoted statements taken entirely out of context, and failed to present any substantiated proof countering the reality of my ongoing financial hardship.

- i. Defendant Charles Schwab has blatantly misrepresented the truth on the record. A review of their actual exhibit #2 [doc 45] reveals the following: Exhibit #2 [doc 45, MA-122445] in their Reply “Original jurisdiction is assumed. Okla. Const. Art. 7, § 4. Petitioner's Petition for Writ of Mandamus Compelling Judicial Recusal is denied. Real Party in Interest Adam Sylvester Stephens' request for award of attorney fees is granted. The Court finds Petitioner's Application [for MANDAMUS to recuse special judges for high-valued properties over $25, not for Pauper Status] lacking in legal and factual basis. [notice the PERIOD here separating previous sentence/thought to the next] Pursuant to the Court's order in Case No. 121,200 issued June 5, 2023, petitioner's in pauperis status is hereby revoked [without any “Findings of fact and conclusions of law” as previously demanded by Appellant]. To commence a new proceeding in this Court, Petitioner shall hereafter be required to submit the required cost deposit in conformance with Supreme Court Rules”. What the Oklahoma Supreme Court ordered is completely contrary to Defendant’s false statements: “The Schwab Defendants would note that the Oklahoma Supreme Court recently evoked Plaintiffs in pauperis status based on the absence of legal and factual basis for her filings. See Exh. 2 (Order in Case No. 122,445 (Oklahoma Supreme Court))”--this is as perjury and maliciously misrepresented by Defendant CHARLES SCHWAB to this Honorable Federal Court in their paragraph 7 [doc 45].
- ii. Next, looking up Case No. MA-121,200 court order for Petition for Mandamus is attached as Exhibit 04 “By Order entered April 3, 2023, this Court construed Petitioner's ‘Motion for Emergency Stay of Mother's Child-Support-Indirect-Contempt Arraignment and Related Subsequent Proceedings’ as an application to assume original jurisdiction. Petitioner's application is denied. The Court notes that Petitioner has initiated multiple appeals challenging the same orders or has otherwise requested relief from this Court which lack legal or factual support. Accordingly, Petitioner is hereby admonished future filings in this Court which lack support in either facts or the law will result in the revocation of Petitioner's pauperis status or other sanctions, including an award of attorney fees to the adverse party.”-- this ominously warned against continued appeals, indicating that the court had pre-decided an outcome of injustice not based on my indigency but rather on a desire to silence my legitimate claims. Oklahoma Supreme Court justices were ignoring the numerous un rebutted facts filed attached with un rebutted evidence, while unconstitutionally threatened punishment for persisting in filing appeals against unjust lower court judges’ rulings, effectively closing the door on all remedial possibilities within state courts. I respectfully DEMAND/REQUEST/MOTION THIS FEDERAL COURT to admonish the Defendants for their misrepresentations and to impose sanctions for their clear violations of ethical standards in legal proceedings.

d. The core argument lies in the merit of my claims, which underscores the necessity for me to proceed without the burden of court fees and without being dismissed nor unfairly struck any document without the opposing party being struck also. Justice demands that I’d be allowed to pursue my case fully, without being hindered by financial constraints imposed by those wishing to evade accountability. At the conclusion of our jury trial for this case, if the opposing counsel can produce any credible evidence of me being rich and has any income that can hire attorneys, only then should this court consider the possibility of imposing costs retrospectively, which could justifiably be added to my existing credit card debts and more promissory notes.

14. This esteemed United States District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma, which is assumed to embody the principles of righteousness and justice until proven otherwise, is now apprised of the unjust revocation of my in forma pauperis status by the Oklahoma Supreme Court. This revocation serves to unjustly deprive me of remedies for harms suffered and obstructs the administration of justice. Therefore, I respectfully urge this Court to ORDER AN INJUNCTION against the Oklahoma Supreme Court and the Tulsa County District Court, compelling the reinstatement of my ability to proceed without incurring court fees. Such action is essential to uphold the principles of fairness and to ensure that I can effectively pursue my case without the barrier of financial constraints.

15. Defendant Cierra Freeman's assertions in paragraph five of her Motion to Strike are based on false premises that mischaracterize my “sur-reply” (a Response to their Reply), which aims to expose the fabrications and perjurious statements made by the Defendants. The Defendant has erroneously labeled my response as a “supplemental brief”, despite the fact that the briefing process has not even commenced yet. It is indeed partially true in that “[s]upplemental briefs are not encouraged and may be filed only upon motion and leave of Court.” However, it is critical to clarify that what i submitted is neither a brief nor a supplemental brief; rather, it serves as a necessary rebuttal to the unfounded counterclaims against me. This mislabeling by wrongdoers Defendants not only undermines the procedural integrity of these proceedings but also infringes upon my rights to a fair trial as guaranteed under the Sixth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, which ensures the right to confront and challenge evidence and claims made against me in and shape or form. In Davis v. McKinney, 518 U.S. 1 (1996), the Supreme Court emphasized the importance of fair play and the opportunity to present one’s case without undue restrictions. By attempting to label my rebuttal as a supplemental brief, the Defendant is not just seeking to stifle my rebuttal response but is effectively trying to inhibit my constitutional right to a fair hearing. It is imperative that this Court recognize and rectify this mischaracterization, allowing my sur-reply to their Reply to my original Response to their Motion to stand unencumbered by unwarranted motions that contradict the fundamental principles of fairness and equity in the judicial process. My right to defend myself against all allegations and against all robbery must be upheld, free from the constraints imposed by the opposing party’s misinterpretation of procedural norms.

16. All Defendants’ Replies, must be stricken from the record too if my reply must be unjustly stricken, but in the interest of justice, i demand that all should be kept in the record and to to be seen by the unbiased public’s eyes. Both Defendant parties exhibited an alarming attitude of entitlement that reflects a double standard and favoritism: their conduct effectively asserts that they are permitted to disregard procedural norms by filing replies without seeking motion and leave of court, while i, Linh, a sui juris litigant, am subjected to different stricter standards simply because i am not part of their B.A.R. card fraternity, ignoring the law saying that less-strict standards are to be applied to sui juris nonlawyer litigants. This disparity in treatment not only undermines the principles of fairness that are foundational to our legal system but also contradicts the very essence of due process as enshrined in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution. These amendments guarantee that no individual shall be deprived of liberty or property without due process of law, applying equally to all parties, regardless of their legal affiliations. Establishing a separate higher standard for my legal practice as a self-represented litigant is not only unjust but also risks a violation of my rights to equal protection under the law as articulated in 42 U.S.C. § 1983, which provides remedies for violations of constitutional rights by state actors. In the case of Patterson v. Colorado, 205 U.S. 454 (1907), the Supreme Court noted that all parties must be treated equally before the law without favoritism or discrimination. The current practices exhibited by the defendants reflect a clear intent to sidestep the rules that are meant to govern all parties equally. For these reasons, I urge the court to ADMONISH THE DEFENDANTS.

- a. Roadway Express v. Pipe, 447 U.S. 752 at 757 (1982): "Due to sloth, inattention or desire to seize tactical advantage, lawyers have long engaged in dilatory practices... the glacial pace of much litigation breeds frustration with the Federal Courts and ultimately, disrespect for the law."
- b. It is settled that the allegations of a pro se litigants' complaint however inartfully pleaded are held to less stringent standards than formal pleadings drafted by lawyers. Eldridge v. Block, 832 F.2d 1132, 1137 (9th Cir. 1987).
- c. Liberal construction means that pro se litigants are relieved from the strict application of procedural rules and demands that courts not hold missing or inaccurate legal terminology or muddled draftsmanship against them. Blaisdell, 729 F.3d at 1241.
- d. Jenkins v. McKeithen, 395 U.S. 411, 421 (1959); Picking v. Pennsylvania R. Co., 151 Fed 2nd 240; Puckett v. Cox, 456 2nd 233: "Pro se pleadings are to be considered without regard to technicality; pro se litigants' pleadings are not to be held to the same high standards of perfection as lawyers."
  - i. Picking v. Pennsylvania Railway, 151 F.2d. 240, Third Circuit Court of Appeals: The plaintiff's civil rights pleading was 150 pages and described by a federal judge as "inept". Nevertheless, it was held "Where a plaintiff pleads pro se in a suit for protection of civil rights, the Court should endeavor to construe Plaintiff's Pleadings without regard to technicalities."
  - ii. Puckett v. Cox, 456 F. 2d 233 (1972) (6th Cir. USCA): It was held that a pro se complaint requires a less stringent reading than one drafted by a lawyer per Justice Black in Conley v. Gibson (see case listed above, Pro Se Rights Section).

- e. Maty v. Grasselli Chemical Co., 303 U.S. 197 (1938): "Pleadings are intended to serve as a means of arriving at fair and just settlements of controversies between litigants. They should not raise barriers which prevent the achievement of that end. Proper pleading is important, but its importance consists in its effectiveness as a means to accomplish the end of a just judgment."
- f. Sherar v. Cullen, 481 F. 2d 946 (1973): "There can be no sanction or penalty imposed upon one because of his exercise of Constitutional Rights."
- g. Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943): "No state shall convert a liberty into a license, and charge a fee therefore."
- h. Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen v. Virginia ex rel. Virginia State Bar, 377 U.S. 1 (1964): Litigants can be assisted by unlicensed laymen during judicial proceedings.
- i. NAACP v. Button, 371 U.S. 415; United Mineworkers of America v. Gibbs, 383 U.S. 715; and Johnson v. Avery, 89 S. Ct. 747 (1969): Members of groups who are competent nonlawyers can assist other members of the group achieve the goals of the group in court without being charged with 'unauthorized practice of law'.

17. Good Cause Exists for Filing Sur-Reply: Plaintiff filed the sur-replies to address new arguments presented in the Defendants' Reply Briefs, ensuring a complete and fair presentation of her case. Why should the sur-reply be stricken if the initial reply by all Defendants remains unchallenged? The principle here is clear: truth should never be hidden or suppressed, and every individual—man or woman—deserves to be treated equally and with respect. The opposing party submitted a reply to my response without first seeking leave from the court, thus opening the door for me to file a sur-reply without needing explicit permission.

18. In the realm of common law, to which i invoked this court's authority, the tradition holds that all parties have the right to present their positions fully and openly. There is a longstanding legal principle that aligns with the concept of due process, as articulated in the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, which guarantees that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. Here, due process necessitates that both parties have the opportunity to confront and rebut claims made against them.

19. Moreover, under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, particularly Rule 15, a party may respond to an opposing party's pleading and, in the interests of justice, should have the right to rebuff any new allegations or misrepresentations presented which there were plenty of new allegations and misrepresentations by Defendants in their reply to my response. By seeking to suppress a sur-reply full of rebutting truth, the opposing party maliciously attempted to limit relevant truths that need to be addressed in this case.

20. This court should embrace its role as a seeker of truth, discerning between fact and falsehood, and allowing for open and fair rebuttal to all claims. To do otherwise would violate the foundational principles of equality and justice that are enshrined not only in our laws but in the very fabric of our society. To strike the sur-reply while allowing the reply to stand would undermine the commitment to fairness and equity that we are all entitled to under the law.
21. Supreme Court's Guidance on sui juris Litigation: Following U.S. Supreme Court ruling in Loper Bright Enterprises v. Raimondo, 592 U.S. ____ (June 28, 2024), courts must balance procedural rigor with the need to accommodate sui juris litigants, preventing unjust dismissal of their pleadings; this SCOTUS ruling also addressed the scope of agency overreach and the standing of federal, state, and local agencies in administrative proceedings. Plaintiff's case involved a lot of substantive allegations and alleged harm if true without being allowed to prove true to be recompensed will be egregious and evil in the eyes of YAHUAH and of all men, and will be recorded in eternal history, and this evoke the wrath of YAHUAH on all those involved and their lands, as promised in Bible's Jeremiah 6:14,15,19 GNV.
22. Defendants' Motions are Unwarranted: The motions to strike are primarily tactical, aiming to limit Plaintiff's ability to respond rather than addressing substantive legal issues.
23. False Accusations of "Threats" without any proof of harm against Injured Victim to Distract, Deflect, Delay to Deny Justice is well-known strategies of Abusers/Criminals:
  - a. False accusations made without any proof of harm against this injured victim are blatant and calculated strategies employed by abusers and criminals such as Defendants. These tactics—designed to distract, deflect, and delay justice—are all too familiar.
  - b. I want to clarify that any statements made that may have seemed threatening were never intended to intimidate; rather, they were heartfelt expressions rooted in my faith: My Protector is my Heavenly Father named YAHUAH i.e. The Creator remains steadfast, as He always has, in punishing those who perpetrate evil, including those who have harmed me as detailed in my complaint, and those who have either failed to protect me or chose complicity in these wrongdoings. In this context, I invoke the timeless Latin phrase, “Nemo me impune lacessit,” meaning “no one attacks me with impunity.” This motto, associated with Scotland and the Order of the Thistle, serves as a powerful reminder that harming a child of YAHUAH (the Most High, the Creator, the GREAT I AM THAT I AM) will not go unaddressed. Those who maliciously inflict injury should understand that they cannot act without facing consequences, avenged by Him in the name of Yahusha the Christ. I hold dearly the belief articulated in 1 Samuel 24:12: “May the Lord judge between you and me. And may the Lord avenge the wrongs you have done to me, but my hands will not touch you.” This belief emphasizes divine justice, as also reflected in Proverbs 24:12: “If you said, ‘But we knew nothing about this,’ does not He who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not He who guards your life know it? Will He not repay everyone according to what they have done?” It appears the wrongdoers refuse to repent or apologize, continuing their path without recognition of the harm inflicted upon me—taking my retirement and robbing me not just of funds, of years of hard-earned labor, and of my daughter (my property, my liberty/freedom to associate with blood family, and my livelihood). They orchestrated this theft while I was only forty years old (30 years before average retirement age), with numerous first-hand witnesses, including Wade Reeves, Maryann Petri, Hester Brown, and many others who prefer to remain unnamed for their safety from retaliation.

c. Legal Violations and Criminal Activity alleged are numerous and grave, and must never be dismissed:

- i. Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (15 U.S.C. § 1692, et seq.)
- ii. Mail and Wire Fraud
- iii. Bank Fraud
- iv. Impersonation of IRS Agents and Article III Judges (18 U.S.C. § 912)
- v. Conspiracy Against Rights (18 U.S.C. § 241)
- vi. Violation of Civil Rights (42 U.S.C. § 1983)
- vii. Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law (18 U.S.C. § 242)
- viii. Violation of Procedural Due Process Rights under the Fourteenth Amendment
- ix. Unwarranted Seizure of Bank Funds and Personal Information
- x. False Imprisonment and Unlawful Arrest (25 CFR § 11.404)
- xi. Fraudulent Acquisition of Confidential Financial Records (12 U.S.C. § 3403)

- xii. Malicious Prosecution & Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (18 U.S.C. §2340)
- xiii. Misappropriation of State Funds (18 U.S.C. §§ 643-653)
- xiv. Extortion and Abusive Debt Collection Practices
- xv. Defamation (28 U.S.C. § 4101(1))
- xvi. Government Overreach

d. This litany of injustices reflects a systemic failure and individual malevolence that will NOT be overlooked. Justice shall prevail in Yahusha's name, and those who believe they can evade accountability will find they have misjudged the divine order of right and wrong.

V. CONCLUSION: For the reasons articulated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court deny Defendants' Motions to Strike her Rebuttal to their perjurious-and-without-Court's-permission Replies to her Response to their Motion to Dismiss, thus enabling her to fully and fairly present her case. The Plaintiff asserts that her Original Complaint sufficiently states claims that not only justify the continuation of these proceedings in this Court but also seek redress for direct violations of her rights under federal law and rights given by God Creator. Consequently, Plaintiff requests that this Honorable Court deny all motions to dismiss as well as all motions to strike. Furthermore, she urges the Court to expedite the progression of this case by scheduling a conference in preparation for a jury trial in common law court, overseen by an Article III Judge (article three judge) as outlined in the United States original Constitution, and issuing requested injunctions against Oklahoma Supreme Court and against Tulsa County District Court to reinstatement of my ability to proceed without incurring court fees, ordering offending Defendants to end harassments (including unlawful Child-Support Collection practices/efforts via OKDHS CSS; malicious prosecution by Tulsa County for Indirect Contempt of Court charges for child support) and defamation of Plaintiff (including but not limited defamation alleging "contempt of court", "not paying child support", "willful violation of court order", "abusive parent with substantiation of abuse" without any evidence and without any witnesses during any trial including jury trial); Vacate Child Support Order of October 14, 2022 and Order Modifying The Decree of Dissolution of Marriage of February 20, 2024 that breached previous contracts of child support finalized in another State and previously upheld by previous judges of Tulsa County Court; uphold original Child Support Contract of January 2016 in Oregon and upheld in Oklahoma 07/2017 and again in 2019 to comply with judicial estoppel; ordering there shall never be any child support order to be issued against Mother unless Father give Mother back her paid-in-full brand-new-fully-loaded Jeep Wrangler and brand-new fully loaded Baja 18-feet Trailer; ordering the reversal of Defendant's passport-suspension/revocation and licensures-suspension stemmed from OKDHS CSS' persecutory actions. In seeking these remedies, the Plaintiff emphasizes her right to a fair trial and full access to justice, as guaranteed under the Sixth Amendment and preserved by the principles of due process. The Plaintiff also respectfully requests that the Court grants any additional relief it deems just and appropriate to ensure fairness and equity in these proceedings.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America, circa 1776.

ORDER

Appellee's Motion to Dismiss Appeal for lack of an appealable order is granted in part, and denied in part. 12 O.S. 2021, §§ 952 & 953.

The motion to dismiss is granted as to the October 17, 2022 order awarding temporary child support in accordance with the temporary custody order and the October 31, 2022 order denying Appellant's objection and motion to recalculate. Such orders are interlocutory and not immediately appealable. S.W. v. Duncan, 2001 OK 39, ¶ 11, 24 P.3d 846. Moreover, the orders do not fall into any of the statutory or rule-based categories of orders appealable by right. See 12 O.S. 2021, §§ 952(b)(2), 993(A), and Rule 1.60, Oklahoma Supreme Court Rules, Tit. 12, ch. 15, App. 1. See also Kantor v. Kantor, 1994 OK 132, ¶ 2, 886 P.2d 480.

More unlawful Order by lower court for RECORDS TO BE SEALED (01-17-2023)

To the extent Appellant challenges the November 2, 2022 order sealing records, Appellee's motion to dismiss is denied. The order sealing records is the functional equivalent of an injunction, therefore the appeal of this order shall proceed as an appeal from an order appealable by right. Collier v. Reese, 2009 OK 86, ¶ 11, 222 P.3d 966. See Rule 1.60(c), Oklahoma Supreme Court Rules, Tit. 12, ch. 15, App. 1.

Appellant will have the opportunity to seek review of the October 17, 2022 and October 31, 2022 orders upon a final adjudication of the parties' motions to modify custody filed in the district court case. Appellee's Objection to Appellant's Pauper's Affidavit is denied. Father = Appellee Mother = Appellant
